

During your time as a student studying economics, have you personally experienced discrimination or unfair treatment with regard to:

