Subject/methods not taken seriously not taken seriously Economic History Other Agricultural and Natural Resource Economics / Environmental Economics Health, Education and Welfare Business Administration/Business Economics Labor and Demographic Economics Economic Development, Innovation, Technical Change, and Growth International Economics Public Economics Microeconomics Mathematical and Quantitative Methods Macro and Monetary Economics General Economics and Teaching Urban Economics Industrial Organization Financial Economics 0.0 0.2 0.4 0.6

